

CCC Curriculum Inventory

Training Session provided by the California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office

A screenshot of a Windows Internet Explorer browser window displaying the homepage for the CCC Curriculum Inventory. The browser's address bar shows the URL 'C:\Documents and Settings\ydarin\Desktop\Academic Affairs\CurricUNET.mht'. The page title is 'CurricUNET - Windows Internet Explorer'. The main content area features a large graphic with a blue circle containing a yellow diamond and a red rectangle, with the text 'CurricUNET' below it. To the left of this graphic is a login section with fields for 'User Name' and 'Password', and a 'CurricUNET Home' button. To the right is a 'Recent News' section with a welcome message and a 'Detected Flash' notification. The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the Start button, several open applications including Microsoft Outlook and PowerPoint, and the system tray with the date and time (8:48 AM, Friday).

CCC Curriculum Inventory

Completely online inventory of programs

- Proposals will be submitted online
- Approved proposals will be stored online
- Eventually, colleges will be able to perform real-time queries of the inventory

CCC Curriculum Inventory

Roll out will begin in mid-March with a small test group.

Training will begin in April

- Every Tuesday and Thursday through April
- Schedule has not been announced; stay tuned

CCC Curriculum Inventory

Three types of schools in the California Community College System

- Those with CurricUNET
- Those with another type of electronic curriculum management systems (Banner, Datatel, etc)
- Those without an electronic curriculum management systems system

CCC Curriculum Inventory

For those of you at one of the latter two types of colleges,
DON'T PANIC.

- The CCC Curriculum Inventory will have an interface for other electronic curriculum management systems that are used.
- For colleges without an electronic curriculum management systems , there will be a bulk-load feature that will allow the college to submit the proposal electronically.

CCC Curriculum Inventory

Some identifiable changes that the CCC CI will bring about:

- Proposals for credit degrees and Certificates of Achievement will now need to be submitted separately.
- Colleges will be able to track the status of their proposal directly through the CCC CI.
- Signatures pages will still need to be signed; however, they will be scanned and submitted with the proposal, and then kept locally.
