Technology Tools & Tricks

for Delivering Remote Classes Effectively

Remote Instruction is Here to Stay

- While many are suffering from “Zoom fatigue,” the reality is that remote/online learning will be a fixture of our programs moving forward

- Let's make the most of the opportunities this provides and celebrate our successes along the way!

Success Stories

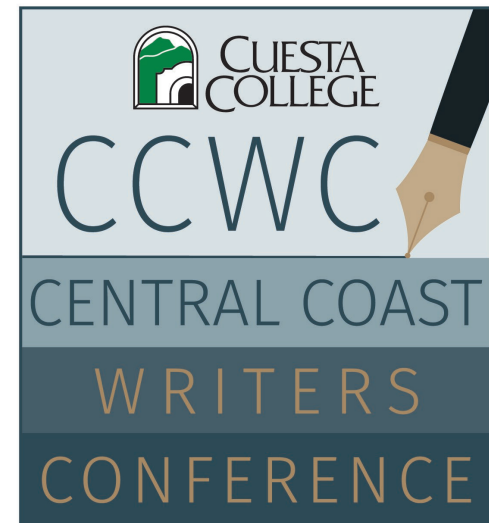

Summer 2020 Youth Programs (100% online)

- 51 classes over 7 weeks (6-week CFK and 1-week CyberCamp)
- Unique Zoom links
- 206 enrollments
 - 87% CA; 13% out of state (13 different states)
 - 74% in county; 26% out of county (previously 97%; 3%)
- Unique experiences: teacher out of state, traveling student, cousins, check-in opportunities

Cuesta College Central Coast Writers Conference (100% online)

- 5 master classes, 3 keynotes, and 50 workshops over 3 days – Zoom links by track
- 140 enrollments
 - 90% CA; 10% out of state (10 different states)
 - 54% in county; 46% out of county (previously 62% and 38%)
 - 51 presenters (no travel or lodging required = $$$ saved)
- Unique experiences: presenters out of state and country, increased intimacy for Q&A, access to presenters' creative spaces, switching workshops

Presentation Quality

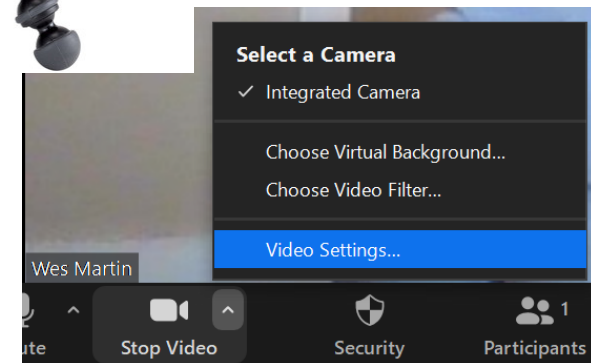

Tips for Administrators

- Practice with your first-time presenters and encourage them to do the same with friends and family
- <https://www.conferzoom.org/ConferZoom/SignUp> for free unlimited faculty and staff Zoom accounts
- Consider orientation events

Tips for Presenting

- Lighting – add spot lighting or adjust video settings
- Secondary camera – support hands-on instruction and demonstrations with a cell phone or tablet
- Multiple screens for gallery view while presenting
- Green screen if using a virtual background
- Headphones
- Quiet, distraction-free location
